Switching gears...

In your opinion, when it comes to having sufficient academic knowledge and skills, do you believe graduates of Tennessee's public high schools are – very prepared, somewhat prepared, somewhat unprepared or very unprepared – to meet the expectations they face as they take the next steps after high school?

| | |
|--------------------------|-----------|

| Very prepared | 6 |
| Somewhat prepared | 47 |
| Somewhat unprepared | 25 |

More specifically, in your opinion, are Tennessee's high school graduates properly prepared for college or a job? (PROBE: DEFINITELY/PROBABLY)

Now, as you may know, Tennessee has a policy that uses the year-to-year academic growth of students in part to measure a teacher's achievement and use it as part of the teacher's annual review. Do you favor or oppose this policy? (IF FAVOR/OPOSE, ASK) Would you say you STRONGLY (favor/oppose) or just SOMEWHAT (favor/oppose)?

| | |
|-----------------------------------|-----------|
| FAVOR | 54 |
| OPOSE | 37 |

| Refused (DO NOT READ) | * |

Now, if you knew that in a statewide survey of public school teachers in Tennessee, more than 65% said that teacher evaluations have led to improvements in student learning, would you favor or oppose the policy of using the year-to-year academic growth of students as a part of measuring a teacher's achievement? (IF FAVOR/OPPOSE, ASK) Would you say you STRONGLY

|-----------------------------------|-----------|
| FAVOR | 67 |
| OPPOSE | 27 |

And, thinking for a moment about testing students in our state's public schools...

How important is it to test students from grades three through eleven each year to know if they are meeting the state's education standards in reading, writing and math? Is it... (READ 1-4, 4-1)

Thinking some more about standardized academic testing in Tennessee public schools, based on what you know, would you say that...(READ AND ROTATE STATEMENTS)

| | |
|---|----|
| ALL the standardized tests in Tennessee public schools are chosen and administered by the state. | 43 |
| SOME of the standardized tests in Tennessee public schools are chosen and administered by the state and some are chosen and administered by the local school district | 30 |
| DK/Refused (DO NOT READ) | 27 |

And, in general, do you believe that students in Tennessee's public schools are given... (READ AND ROTATE 1-3, 3-1)

| Too many tests | 37 |
| About the right amount of tests | 35 |
| Not enough tests | 12 |
| Don't Know (DO NOT READ) | 15 |
| Refused (DO NOT READ) | * |

And, now thinking about this...

As you may know, Tennessee is using a new end of year test to better assess what a child learns in a school year. These new tests are called TN (TEE-EN) Ready and were designed to better match what is actually being taught in Tennessee classrooms. The TN Ready test is designed to measure problem solving, critical thinking, and other skills needed for 21st century careers.

Knowing this, do you favor or oppose implementing these new tests? (IF FAVOR/OPPOSE, ASK)
Would you say you STRONGLY (favor/oppose) or just SOMEWHAT (favor/oppose)?

|-----------------------------------|-----------|
| FAVOR | 65 |

| Somewhat oppose | 10 |
| Strongly oppose | 13 |
| Don't Know/Not sure (DO NOT READ) | 11 |
| Refused (DO NOT READ) | * |

IF FAVOR, ASK:

Now, thinking some more about this new TN Ready test, it is likely when they are implemented that student test scores will drop significantly as students and teachers get used to the new tests. Knowing this, would you still favor or oppose implementing the new tests known as TN Ready? (IF FAVOR/OPPOSE, ASK) Would you say you STRONGLY (favor/oppose) or just SOMEWHAT (favor/oppose)?

CONTINUE TO ALL:

Would you favor or oppose allowing parents to opt their children out of the new English language arts and math end-of-the-year standardized tests, like the new TN Ready tests? (IF FAVOR/OPPOSE, ASK) Would you say you STRONGLY (favor/oppose) or just SOMEWHAT (favor/oppose)?

And, on another topic...

As you may know, charter schools are schools, which receive public funding but operate independently of the traditional local public school system.

Would you favor or oppose giving Tennessee parents a choice in where they send their kids to school, by expanding charter schools here in the state? (IF FAVOR/OPPOSE, ASK) Would you say you STRONGLY (favor/oppose) or just SOMEWHAT (favor/oppose)?
