

Better Health Better Learning

A Conversation On Tennessee Student Success

Monday, August 28, 2017
Music City Center

Register for Better Health, Better Learning:
A Conversation On Student Success.

8:30a Registration & Networking Breakfast

9:30a Health And Education In Tennessee
Senator Bill Frist, MD, Former US Senate Majority Leader

10:00a Panel I: Why This Work Matters
This panel of national health and education leaders will discuss the intersection between health and education outcomes, highlighting relevant data on disparities, challenges, and opportunities for stronger ties across the education and health care communities. Panelists include Dr. Richard Besser from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Dr. Marlon King from Fayette County Schools, and Holly Hunt from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Moderator: Senator Bill Frist, MD, NashvilleHealth and SCORE

10:45a Break

10:55a Breakout Session I
Participants will choose from one of six concurrent breakout sessions about implementing district-wide mental health supports, the impact of grants in rural schools, building community health partnerships, adverse childhood experiences, telehealth, and the importance of coordinated school health.

11:45a Break For Lunch

12:15p Panel II: What Is The Tennessee Context?

This panel of state policymakers will discuss the progress Tennessee has made in meeting both the health and education needs of its students, as well as gaps in coordinating health and education outcomes. Panelists include Commissioner Candice McQueen from the Tennessee Department of Education, Dr. J.D. Hickey from BlueCross BlueShield of Tennessee, and Dr. James Hildreth of Meharry Medical College.

Moderator: Jamie Woodson, SCORE

1:00p Break

1:10p Breakout Session II

Participants will choose from one of six concurrent breakout sessions about student perspectives on promoting nutrition, research about health in rural communities, promising practices within coordinated school health, promoting physical activity, philanthropy's role in promoting student health, and the work of the Tennessee Department of Health.

2:00p Break

2:10p Panel III: Moving Tennessee Forward: Working Together To Improve Health And Education Outcomes

This panel of leaders representing school districts, the healthcare industry, and community organizations will discuss promising strategies to improve health and education outcomes as well as the importance of fostering relationships across these sectors. Panelists include Dr. Michael Warren from the Tennessee Department of Health, Dr. Shawn Joseph of Metro Nashville Public Schools, and Rick Johnson from The Governor's Foundation for Health and Wellness.

Moderator: Caroline Young, NashvilleHealth

3:10p Keynote Speaker

Dr. Jill Biden, Former Second Lady of the United States, Northern Virginia Community College

3:40p Call To Action And Closing

Senator Bill Frist, MD, Former US Senate Majority Leader

4:00p Event Concludes

tnscore.org | FB.com/score4schools | @SCORE4Schools |
nashvillehealth.org | FB.com/nashhealthorg | @nashhealthorg |
#TNedHealth